

Because of the unique shape, style and masonry work in the building that houses the Museum of Jewish Heritage, standard expansion joint systems could not be used to properly seal the exterior of the structure. To meet these unique requirements, eight different seal shapes were designed that were used to extrude colored silicone seals for the project.

Museum of Jewish Heritage
New York, NY

Materials Used

Specialized color silicone seal

Installing Contractor

Turner Construction Company

375 Hudson Street
New York, NY 10014
212-229-6000

Erie Metal Specialties, Inc.

13311 Main Road
Akron, NY 14001
Ph: 716-542-3991
Fax: 716-542-3996
www.eriemetal.com
sales@eriemetal.com